ÖZET

ASAP 2019 – BERLIN

- ✓ Main focus of the meeting was ‘We pilots should be the ones who send out the message.’
- ✓ SAS union issues were discussed thoroughly. ASAP offered any and all the help to the union.
- ✓ Avianca strike and its outcomes were discussed.
- ✓ Seat miles percentages were reviewed. (Turkish Airlines has 9% in 2019)
- ✓ There are no new members joined to the star alliance since 2014. Ideas about adding new members to the alliance were talked upon.
- ✓ The benefits of Tri-Alliance and alliances’ different perspectives were handled. It had been pointed out that joint ventures and tri-alliances would be good for competitive market although it would probably reduce the rate of growth.
- ✓ The effects of international economical policies on aviation industry: demand is increasing steadily however does the supply meet the demand?
- ✓ In terms of profit North america is the leading country while africa is the last in line.
- ✓ The regional effects of increased fuel costs; Europe stands almost the same since last year.
- ✓ Finally the future of tri-alliance, how it is going to be handled in terms of solving the issues and how it is going to be improved was discussed.

SONUÇ VE ÖNERİLER:

ASAP clearly stated that we can be more involved and that they are interested in Turkey and its potential very much indeed.
